

Admissions Policy

You can apply for a place at any time from your child's birth. Places are offered from the September before the academic year in which your child is due to start. Gan Alon operates a waiting list system.

It is advisable to send in your registration form as early as possible as the receipt date is used when allocating places.

The cut-off date for receiving registration forms is the 1st July before the academic year in which your child is due to start.

If there are more applicants than vacancies, places are allocated in the following order:

- 1 Returning families of NNLS/Masorti Members
- 2 NNLS members
- 3 Other Masorti synagogue members
- 4 Other children

Children whose birthdays fall between:

1st September and 31st December will start in the Autumn Term which includes their third birthday.

1st January and 31st March will start in the Spring Term which includes their third birthday.

1st April and 31st August will start in the Autumn Term of the next academic year.
