Notes

1. The Subscriber promises to pay amounts to the Charity today and at regular intervals as detailed overleaf, from the date of this Promise thereafter until the Subscriber gives written notice to the Charity (or during the Subscriber's lifetime if shorter). These payments shall be held by the Charity for and irrevocably appropriated to charitable purposes as set out below.
2. The Charity shall recover any refund of income tax which may be due in connection with payments made under this Promise.
3. The Charity shall hold all monies received and income tax recovered (the "Building Fund") and shall apply those funds toward the land purchase, design, construction, fitting out and other associated costs of the new building project of the New North London Synagogue Charity Trust.
4. The application of the Building Fund as provided above is intended to be wholly for charitable purposes without any direct or indirect benefit for or through the Subscriber.
5. The Building Fund may be invested by the Charity under the same terms as in respect of its property under investment powers in its trust deed.
6. The Charity shall act on written instructions signed by or his/her authorised representative.
7. The Charity may assign the benefit of this Promise to a third party bank or other lending institution solely for the purpose of securing a loan or other advance to facilitate the completion of the building project.
8. The Subscriber may cancel the Gift Aid declaration at any time by notifying the Charity in writing.

If this donation is made under Gift Aid you must pay an amount of income tax and/or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that the Charity reclaims on your donation in the tax year (currently 28p for each £1 that you give).

If your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that the Charity reclaims, you can cancel the Gift Aid declaration at any time.

If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your self-assessment tax return. Please let us know if you need further help in completing the form or reclaiming tax.
